CORN SHOW OPENS WITH 216 ENTRIES

As Awards Are Made This Afternoon, Farmers Organize County Corn Growers' Association

GIRLS' CLUB MAKES EXHIBIT

Prize Winner Corn Will Be On View Friday And Two Addresses Will Be On The Program

The annual Rush county corn show opened this morning with 216 entries in all classes, and judging was begun this afternoon by C. E. Troyer of LaFontaine. It was expected the awards would all be made by tonight.

The display of corn is on exhibit on the second floor of the court house in the commissioners' room, and in the corridor of the second floor.

Practically all of the entries were in by noon, and were put in position according to the townships, or according to the classes in which the corn was entered. The 216 entries included all kinds, and the junior classes, which were well filled with entries.

A large delegation of farmers was meeting this afternoon in the assembly room of the court house, perfecting a new organization, known as the Rush county Corn Growers' association, which when organized, will be affiliated with the state association.

This afternoon the plan was being discussed by the farmers, and a constitution and by-laws were being prepared for adoption. The election of officers for the new organization also will be made today, when the association is definitely formed.

In addition to the corn show, there is an interesting exhibit on the second floor, in the west end of the corridor of the work accomplished by the Union township Girls Club. The display was confined to needlework. The girls' club work in that township is in charge of Mrs. Oscar Reese.

Friday is looked forward to as being the banner day of the corn show, when two addresses will be given. In the morning at ten o'clock, Charles J. Patterson of Tipton will speak and in the afternoon Charles E. Watkins of Muncie will address the farmers. These two speakers are well known here, and have frequently addressed the farmers on timely subjects.

The ribbons will also be in place Friday and farmers will continue to have an opportunity of viewing the exhibitors. The prizes for the show this year amounts to $385 in cash, and also three silver cups will be awarded to winners.

WEATHER BLAMED FOR THE POOR ATTENDANCE

Only One Session Of Anderson Township Farmers' Institute Held At Milroy Wednesday

TWO SPEAKERS ON PROGRAM

On account of sickness and the inclement weather the Anderson township farmers' institute held at Milroy Wednesday afternoon was not very well attended, but the few that were present enjoyed a splendid program.

The speaker for the afternoon were Mrs. R. A. Ogg of Greencastle, who spoke on "The Art of Getting Things Done" and R. L. Thompson of Topeka whose topic for discussion was "Keeping the Children on the Farm." Both speeches were splendid and gave many new and interesting facts to the audience. At the beginning of the program the Misses Mildred Booth and Florine Hood rendered an instrumental duet on the piano.

During the business session the farmers organization of Anderson township elected the following officers: Oliver Readmond, chairman; W. D. Crane, secretary; Clyde Archey, treasurer. Mrs. Roy Power was appointed chairman of the Woman's committee.

Arrangements had been made for an all day meeting, but owing to many cases of illness in the township, only an afternoon meeting was held.

IS THROWN BY FARM HORSE

Ardor Lindsay Painfully Injured When Animal Is Frightened

Ardor Lindsay of near Rushville was painfully injured this morning, at the corner of Third and Perkins streets, when a work horse he was riding frightened and threw him off. Lindsay fell under the feet of the frightened horse and another one he was leading. He was temporarily dazed by the fall and slightly bruised from one of the horses stepping on him.

The team, which was harnessed ran a little more than a block and was caught. Lindsay was going after a wagon that he had purchased at a sale Wednesday. The horses belong to Clarence Daubenspeck.

CAST OF MINSTREL SHOW SPECIAL GUESTS

Kiwanis Club "Ladies Night" Wednesday Evening Regarded As Best On Record

SPLENDID PROGRAM GIVEN

At what was regarded as one of the best "Ladies Night" meetings in the history of the Kiwanis club entertained at the Social club Wednesday evening in compliment to members of the cast of the Black and White Minstrels which were given under the auspices of the club several weeks ago.

Following an elaborate dinner, a program was given and the remainder of the evening was spent with dancing and at cards. Dr. J. B. Kinsinger president, presided at the program, and William A. Young expressed the sincere gratitude of all Kiwanians to members of the minstrel cast for the part they had in making the two performances successful.

The first number on the program was a vocal duet by Mrs. George Hogsett and Denning Havens, Mrs. Hogsett playing the accompaniment, followed by a violin number by Miss Marian Kinsinger, with piano accompaniment, by Miss Brenda Kinsinger. Will Jay told a few stories that pleased the banqueters immensely and Mrs. Hogsett gave two readings that were appreciated. The vocal selections by Dr. Hale Pearsey and a vocal duet by Mrs. Hogsett and B. F. Miller closed the program.

Music for the dancing that followed and also during the banquet, was provided by McGinnis' orchestra of this city.

EXPLAINS WHY EAST END OF ROAD IS ROUGH

A. O. Hastings Of Greenfield, District Engineer, Says Highwayman's Truck Was Out Of Commission

IS BACK ON THE JOB AGAIN

In response to complaints that state road No. 39, from Rushville to Indianapolis, has been in bad condition, A. O. Hastings of Greenfield, district engineer, says that section D, which is the Rushville end of the road, has been rough on account of the motor truck of this section being out of repair.

Mr. Hastings declared in a letter received here this week that the truck which has been undergoing repairs for the past two weeks, is now ready for use and that section D will be placed in shape immediately.

Section A, the Indianapolis end of the road, he says, was thoroughly dragged this week, but still has a little excess of new material. The middle section. Mr. Hastings said, are in good shape as the man in charge there did a first class job of dragging this week.

Mr. Hastings maintains that the taxpayers are getting the maximum of service from the state highway commission, pointing out that roads taken over by the commission are in much better shape than they were prior to the time the commission had charge. He says that truckmen are paid by the hour and not straight salary.

REACH OF GOD'S LOVE INCLUDES ALL

Evangelist Says It Finds Men in Every Degree of Attainment, in Every Depth of Iniquity

SERMON BY W. MCLEAN WORK

Richmond Pastor to Deliver Third of Series Tonight—Reid Memorial Quartette to Sing

The reach of God's love was defined by the Rev. W. McLean Work of Richmond at the revival service at the First United Presbyterian church Wednesday evening. It was the second of a series of sermons on Ephesians 3:18.

The first of the series it was "The Breadth of Salvation" and last night it was "The Length of Salvation". The speaker divided his sermon into two parts—the extent of God's plan and the reach of God's love. He said in beginning:

"Salvation is an old theme. It is as old as the history of man on the earth. Since the fall of man, the 'seed of the woman' has been bruising the head of the serpent. By a progressive revelation God has been making known to the world his plan by which it may be saved. In Old Testament times he revealed himself progressively as man was able to receive it. Now the truth is in permanent form and while He is still revealing truth to men by his Holy Spirit, there is nothing new. The case of Lazarus and the rich man was cited to show that even a visitant from the other world could add nothing to Moses and the prophets that would at all assist men in the matter of repentance."

The Reach of God's Love was shown to include all men. From all eternity God loved man and planned his salvation. It finds men in every degree of attainment and in every depth of iniquity. He has shown himself "Able to save to the uttermost all that come unto God through Him." No case is hopeless. No man need despair. The disease of sin is not beyond the skill of the Great Physician, the evangelist said.

Salvation itself was defined and the speaker showed exactly in what, in his opinion, salvation consisted. Four blessings come to every saved man. (a) He is set free from fear. He is not afraid of any eventuality. Since "All things work together for good to those that love God", the child of God need not give himself undue concern about anything. No disaster can overtake him. No ill befall. No enemy assail. In other words the Christian can keep his morale at all times. (b) Salvation enables one to be conqueror over sorrow. At the open grave the comforting words of the Saviour refresh the soul—"I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth on me shall never die. And Continued on page six

Women In Fat And Forty Class Sighing In Relief

Those Who Prefer Torture of Steel Staves to Torture of No Chocolates Learn Anti-Corset Bill Will Be Withheld Until 1925 Session of Legislature

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 1—Women in the "fat and forty" class who prefer the torture of steel staves to the torture of no chocolates breathed a sigh of relief today, and broke a corset string.

For it became known that the anti-corset bill which the Anna Hoeltke Lee Anti-Corset Society had decided to present to the legislature will be withheld until the 1925 session.

"We need more time to arouse public sentiment against the tight laces to which we attribute many of the world's ills," said Anna Hoeltke Lee, founder of the society and herself uncorseted.

The bill planned by the society would impose a $500 fine on anyone manufacturing or selling corsets.

But the "fat and forty" had better eat all their chocolates and revel all they please in their steel staves during the next two years, because Anna Hoeltke Lee says her bill will become a law. Meanwhile she will carry on her propaganda.

Mrs. Lee is writing an autobiography telling of divine visions she declares she has seen calling upon her to free people from the corset evil.

FRENCH ATTITUDE IS MORE SEVERE

Drastring Repressive Measures Follow Competition of First Steps to Enforce Reparations

MORE OFFICIALS EXPELLED

Requisitioning of Coal Started by French Troops at Bochum—Pro-Testing Officials Arrested

By CARL D. GROAT (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Berlin, Feb. 1—Drastic and severe repression of German resistance in the Ruhr and Rhineland followed completion of the first series of Franco-Belgian measures to enforce reparations today.

Forty more Ruhr officials were ordered expelled today, including the burgomasters of Horne and Cleve. Requisitioning of coal was started by French troops at Bochum.

Two officials who protested were arrested. The German miners struck in reprisal, whereupon troops cleared the Weit Mar mine and stood guard.

The whole attitude of the invaders was reported as more severe than hitherto.

HEARING SET FOR SATURDAY

Remonstrance Against City Street Paving to be Considered

The hearing on the remonstrance against the petition of O. E. Humes and others improve Harrison and Eighth streets under the three-mile road, will be heard at the court house assembly room Saturday morning at ten o'clock under the auspices of the state public service commission. It is thought that Walter Bridges, an employee of the commission, will take the testimony as he was assigned to conduct the hearing once before, when it was postponed.

The petition was filed two years ago, for the paving of Harrison street from First to Eighth streets, and Eighth from Harrison to the cement road just outside the corporation line. The remonstrators won a temporary victory when the state commission refused to sanction the bond issue on account of the high price of road material.

FIVE SCHOOL BILLS ARE PUT TO SLEEP

Lower House Acts on Recommendations of Committee on Education in Postponing Them

SLAP AT STATE COMMISSION

Bill Would Take Mutual Telephone From Jurisdiction of Public Service Body

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 1—A slap at the public service commission, the recommending for passage of a garnishee bill and the killing of five school bills, were some of the accomplishments of the state legislature today.

The slap at the public service commission was delivered when Representatives Mabbitt, Hammitt and Myers introduced a bill to take mutual telephone companies from the jurisdiction of the commission.

A majority committee report recommending passage of the garnishee bill was concurred in by the senate after a sharp debate. The bill would permit any person, firm or corporation to garnishee the income of a debtor.

The five school bills which the lower house killed on recommendations of the committee on education are as follows:

Authorizing county superintendents to serve as attendance officers in certain counties, introduced by Representative Leveron.

Repealing the state probation law introduced by Representative Kenney.

Abolishing the office of county trustee officer and placing his duties in the hands of the township trustee, introduced by Representative Myers.

Providing for the establishment of a township board of education which would be composed of a trustee, two elected citizens and an advisor, introduced by Representative McCloskey.

Providing for township trustee to appoint more school township superintendents, introduced by Representative Larrabee.

One more step in the fight over the sale by the state of Lake county land to the Jones-Laughlin Steel Company was taken in a bill introduced by Representative Love. The measure provides that the state must sell land on petition of five persons and that if it can not be sold for cash at a public sale, it may be sold Continued on Page Six

AGITATION TO ADD PENNSYLVANIA TRAINS

Small Towns Along Line Want Train Staying in Columbus All Day to go on to Richmond

BEFORE STATE COMMISSION

Agitation is on foot in the vicinity of Manilla to have restored the two passenger trains, recently removed from the schedule of the Pennsylvania, because of the poor service which is now affecting the towns along the line between Columbus and Richmond.

The matter has also been taken up with the Public Service commission, because many of the smaller towns now have only one mail and passenger train a day in each direction.

The movement on foot is to have trains number 17 and 416 operated. These trains now leave Madison about eight o'clock in the morning and go as far as Columbus, where the crew remains all day, and returns to Madison in the evening. The people maintain that the train could be operated on to Richmond with no additional expense for crews, because they are paid for laying over the entire day in Columbus. These trains formerly ran between Madison and Indianapolis, via Columbus.

It is understood that the movement is taking shape in all of the smaller towns along the line, and also is being fostered by the Chamber of Commerce at Shelbyville.

SCOUT ORGANIZATION
BEING BUILT UP HERE

D. R. Merrell Announces He Will be Glad to Talk Over Work With All Interested Boys

EXAMINATIONS FOR RANK

A Boy Scout organization is being quietly built up here, without the blare of trumpets, but on a solid foundation that will stand the test of time, it became known today, when D. R. Merrell, teacher of grades 5B and 6B at the Jackson school, announced that he was starting the examinations for Scout rank this week.

Mr. Merrell, who has had six years experience as a Scout executive, is starting on a small scale because experience has taught him that beginning with every boy of Scout age in town enrolled, eventually proves fatal to the organization because boys soon lose interest when Scout leaders can not give them the attention necessary.

Most Rushville boys know about the Scout movement, but many do not know about the organization work going on. Mr. Merrell says that he will be glad to talk over the work with any boy who is interested.

Valuable prizes in connection with the Scout examinations are being offered. The four boys passing the Tenderfoot examination with the highest honors will be awarded a free trip to Indianapolis and a free trip to Cincinnati will be given to the four highest in the second class examination. The award for the four highest in the first class examination will be a two-day trip to the Turkey Run state park.

Rupert Hughes is using the famous Hollywood Hotel as a location for "Souls for Sale." Whady'a mean, famous? Well, anyhow, he's about finished there and will next make the dangerous aerial circus scenes. Add danger of the movies note. Carmelita Geraghty, daughter of Tom Geraghty, fell and sustained a fracture of several ribs while practicing ballet steps for the picture.

TWO popular stars in the most gloriously exciting romance ever filmed. A story that has thrilled two generations. Produced on a vast and magnificent scale by a great director. AMUSEMENTS

Shows Industrial Progress

Perhaps the most unique dramatization of industrial progress ever screened was presented to the public Wednesday evening at the Graham Annex auditorium under the title of "The story of an Automobile."

The film bears the seal of the United States Department of Commerce and will be exhibited in all parts of the world. The scenes are laid in the factories of The Studebaker Corporation and vividly detail the building of an automobile.

You see the raw materials enter—and then after hundreds of fascinating and instructive operations—the finished car is driven on its own power from the final assembly line. Skilled workmen perform operations which must not vary more than one-half of one-thousandth of an inch in measurement. Labor saving devices and huge machines, almost human in the operation they perform, furnish dramatic evidence of the advanced methods employed in building Studebaker cars.

The picture was brought to Rushville through the efforts of P. T. Vancamp and Oneal Bros., local Studebaker dealers.

This picture is of interest to anyone who ever rode in a motor car.

Tom Mix At Mystic

Tom Mix, the popular star of the Fox constellation, was once named by a newspaper critic "the movie hero who never made a failure," and ever since, Tom's one ambition has been to live up to the criterion which the newspaper writer had set for him.

That he has been able to achieve this goal is attested by the vast following of fans who acclaim him the greatest screen hero of his type. That Tom deserves the praise he has received is easily demonstrated by his work in the latest William Fox production, "Just Tony," which comes to the Mystic Theatre today.

"Just Tony" also features Mix's

noted horse, "Tony" and was written by Max Brand as a novel under the original title of "Alearatz." In this photoplay of romance and friendship and western valor, Tom again rides the edges of a pantomime hell, shoots with the accuracy of supernatural aim and fights for the love of a beautiful woman in such fashion as to thrill the most blasé of picture-goers.

That Tom is assured of success in his new venture is certain. Pictures like "Just Tony" will not make the star fal short of his "never made a failure" slogan. And once again he clinched his reputation as a versatile star with the brand new role he plays—a role that beside being pleasing and refreshing, is a most difficult one to enact.

"To Have and To Hold"

The management of the Princess Theatre begs to announce the presentation at that playhouse for two days beginning today of George Fitzmaurice's superb Paramount production, "To Have and To Hold," one of the most beautiful and romantic pictures ever screened.

Betty Compson, Paramount star, and Bert Lytell, a well known stage favorite, are featured, the former appearing as the ward of King James I of England, and the latter as a soldier adventurer of Virginia in the early Seventeenth century. The supporting cast includes many well known Paramount Stock Company players.

The story of "To Have and To Hold" has great dramatic power, irresistible heart appeal and in its development, many thrilling scenes, including duels, indian attacks, and encounters with pirates. No one can see this splendid photoplay without visualizing most profitably, the scenes attending the settlement of Virginia. This is a picture you cannot afford to ignore.

TO TAKE RADIUM FROM ASHES

Metal Valued at $600, Belonging to Dr. B. R. Kirklin is Destroyed

Muncie, Ind. Feb. 1.—An effort will be made in a few days at Pittsburgh to extract $600 worth of radium from ashes taken from the furnace of the Home Hospital here. The radium was thrown into the furnace with some waste material.

It was the property of Dr. B. R. Kirklin and was lost while he was treating a patient. Special instruments were brought here by an expert from Pittsburgh which indicated the presence of the precious substance in the furnace.

Dr. Kirklin is a brother of Floyd Kirklin of the Rush County Mills and is well known by a number of Rushville people.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

A NEEDED PRAYER: — Wilt thou not revive us again; that Thy people may rejoice in thee.—Psalm 85: 6.

Farming on The Up Grade

The business of farming is on the up grade. There can be no doubt of this because farmers themselves testify to this fact and further evidence is found in the announcement that farm crops were worth three billion dollars more in 1922 than in 1923. That agriculture continues to mend financially is further shown by index figures just announced by the department of agriculture.

The spirit of optimism that prevails among our farmer business men is evidence enough that conditions have improved, but the figures that are available on the subject reveal that it is a brand of optimism that is not based on any flim-sy economic theory, but upon actual facts. We hear a great deal from the agricultural theorists about the farmer's need for credit, but what he wants most is for the value of his products to continue to mount as they have, and his credit will no longer be a source of worry for him.

The index number of the purchasing power of farm products in terms of other commodities farmers buy is placed at 68 for December, as compared with 66 for November.
The average for the year is 69, compared with 67 in 1921, all of which shows farmers are headed in the right direction though they may not yet be out of the woods.

The improved condition for December is brought about by an increase of 5 points in the index number of the average farm prices of ten leading crops, and a decrease of 1 point in the prices of commodities, excluding farm and food products, that farmers buy.

For the year the average farm prices of ten leading crops is given an index number of 113 as compared with 109 in 1921 and with 238 in 1920. The average farm price for the year of live stock is placed at 111 compared with 107 in 1921 and with 168 in 1920. The average index number of prices of commodities other than farm products which farmers buy is placed at 163 for 1922 compared with 161 in 1921 and with 234 in 1920.

The first move of the present national administration was to relieve the farmers so far as they could be relieved by governmental action. President Harding appointed to the federal reserve board his fellow townsman, D. R. Crissinger, who was known to be an advocate of loans from banks at rates as low as could be justified. That had been Crissinger's practice in his own bank. Soon after the change in the position of comptroller of the currency, which carried with it membership on the federal reserve board, rates began to come down, and all lines of industry began to experience renewed activity.

Moreover, the Harding administration promptly put into effect the new provision for loans through the war finance corporation, advancing to agricultural associations the funds necessary to enable them to market their crops in an orderly manner instead of selling in haste at any prices that could be had.

These two changes in national policy not only brought immediate improvement in the status of agriculture but it made the farmers larger buyers of commodities in general and revived confidence in business conditions. Today the only serious check to industrial activity is the inability of the railroads to handle the traffic because of the deterioration of equipment resulting from a long period of suppression and government operation.

Income Tax Facts

NO. 3

Income-tax returns, sworn to before a notary public or other person authorized to administer an oath, must be filed with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer lives or has his principal place of business on or before midnight of March 15, 1923.
Forms 1040A for filing returns of individual income of $5,000 or less and Forms 1040 for filing returns of income in excess of $5,000 have been sent by collectors to persons who filed similar returns for the year 1921. Failure to receive a form, however, does not relieve the taxpayer of his obligation to file a return and pay the tax on time. Forms may be obtained from the offices of collectors of internal revenue and deputy collectors.

Revenue officers will be sent into every county in the United States to aid taxpayers in making out their returns. The advisory service heretofore offered city residents will be continued. This service, including the administration of the oath, is without cost to the taxpayers.

Taxpayers, before seeking such assistance, however, are advised to read carefully the instructions on the forms. Many questions, which on the face may appear perplexing, can be solved by study of the instructions. Especially, in justice to themselves, taxpayers are advised to note the instructions with regard to credits for personal exemptions and dependents and deductions. In justice to the Government they should note carefully the instructions with regard to income from "salaries, wages, commissions, etc., business or profession, interest on bank deposits, income from partnerships, fiduciaries, etc., income from rents
and royalties and other income."

The taxpayer who, when the form is received will devote to it an hour's study, will go a long way in assuring himself that he is making a correct return.

LEAKAGE IS NEGLIGIBLE

Assistant Prohibition Commissioner
Comments On Recent Charges

Washington, Feb. 1—Assistant Prohibition Commissioner Jones today came to the assistance of har-rassed diplomats with the assertion that leakage of diplomatic liquor into bootleg channels here is negligible.

After a feverish week in which charges and denials of leakage of diplomatic liquors from embassies flew fast and one legation was named by an arrested bootlegger as his source of supply, Jones came to the rescue with oil to pour on the troubled waters.

"If leakage never amounts to any more than it does today or has in the past, there will never be any grounds for employment by the prohibition bureau," Jones declared.

Washington, Feb. 1—The Ameri-

4 o'clock this afternoon to draft recommendations to congress which will enable this government to consummate the agreement for funding the British debt to the United States.

Mr. Harding will send a message

Senators Lodge and Watson an-

The message probably will not be sent before next week, as the Ameri-

RUSSIA BECOMES INVOLVED

Tries To Impose View Dardenelles
Should Be Closed To Warships

Luuzanne, Feb. 1—Russia today
took part in negotiations at Luuzanne, apparently seeking to take advantage of differences between France and Great Britain to impose the view point that the straits of the Dardenelles should be closed to war vessels.

Marquis Curzon replied on behalf of the allies that the question of freedom of the straits could not be considered.

George Tchitcherin, head of the Soviet delegation, then said the question would be an open one as far as Russia was concerned.

FRENCH ATTITUDE IS MORE SEVERE

pletely cut off from the rest of the country. Not an ounce of coal was permitted to leave the district for German destinations.

At the same time, German custom stations which formerly had served for collections on goods entering the country from Belgium, France and Luxemburg were taken over entirely with troops and French civilians such employees as quit, and proceed immediately about the business of collecting customs.

More and more French troops moved into the Ruhr district today, until reports from certain districts made it appear as though the occupation had just begun. Among the forces that were sent in however, were included many troops trained in railroad work.

Essen, central city of Ruhr fuel industry, bore the brunt of the invasion. Completely isolated from the outside world as far as rail or wire communication were concerned, the city even began to feel the pinch of hunger.

The entire Ruhr was not without a touch of this, in fact. With transport disrupted, distribution of foodstuffs was seriously hindered. The French are buying out private stores, sending prices rocketing.

The German government is preparing to establish motor trucks to run foodstuffs in and out of the Ruhr should rail communication be completely cut off.

The shortage of milk is most severe, while meat grows scarcer every day in the occupied.

With these difficulties, the inhabitants of the Ruhr maintained a stubborn front and the French found it necessary to deport 15 more officials today, including the director of the Essen branch of the Reichbank.

Following receipt of a joint Franco Belgian note finding her in default of January 31 payments and insisting upon a less recalcitrant attitude toward the invasion. Germany dispatched to Paris a hotly worded note, protesting against accusations of German breach of the Versailles treaty and demanding troops be withdrawn from the Essen hospital.

Days Watch Over Dead Body
Relatives Give Up After 9

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 1—Relatives who kept a nine-day watch over the body of John Stevenson expecting him to return to life, today announced they were reconciled to the pronouncement of death by coroner officials.

An autopsy performed after authorities broke into the room where the death watch was kept and seized the body showed an organic disease caused death.

Stevenson before lapsing into unconsciousness declared he desired to prove the control of the mind over the body to the extent of even bringing about suspended animation. He declared after a short period his body would again show life and relatives and followers of his strange teaching of evolution were convinced that his experiment would be successful.

Tuberculosis caused death, physicians announced.

Benton Case and Watchdogs

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 1—Every time anything like the present Rube Benton case comes to light, the mistakes made in the days before Commissioner Landis took charge of baseball are made more and more striking.

The tendency to use the white-wash brush instead of the iron rod is responsible for every mess into which organized baseball has found itself.

Figuring that some safety rested in silence and that the interest of business demanded a covering up, organized baseball took the attitude that the Hal Chase, Heinie Zimmerman, Lee Magee, Benton and other cases were none of the fans' business and they allowed the public to think as it wished.

So in 1919 it is not surprising that the "Black Sox" thought—"We can get away with this. Even if we do get caught, they won't let it get out."

Ban Johnson has always aspired to the role of the watchdog of baseball, the guardian of the grand national pastime, always on duty to watch and safeguard the sport.

Since he was the first to raise the row publicly about the return of Rube Benton to the major league, Ban probably thinks his duty nobly done in this instance.

In advancing any claims for honor and glory in this case, however, Ban might explain why it was that it took him three years to complain that Benton made a bet on the Cincinnati Reds in the 1919 world's series.

Some day when he is in a reminiscent mood, Ban also might explain why it was that the White Sox scandal was never made public by him until it looked like the Sox were going to beat out the Cleveland Indians or the 1920 pennant, when Ban had known about the scandal for a year.

Ban and John Heydler, national league president, and Commissioner Landis might also explain how they can allow Benton to play in a minor league without protest, if he is barred from the majors.

National League club owners who are objecting to the return of Benton base their opposition not on the world's series bet he made, but upon and incident that happened in 1917, about which many conflicting tales have been told.

Benton's side of the affair as told to J. W. Norton, president of the St. Paul ball club and told by him recently, was in substance as follows:

It was late in the season of 1917, the Giants were playing in Chicago and one afternoon McGraw, contrary to his usual custom, asked Benton to be ready to pitch the following afternoon. Benton was approached then by one of the Giant players and told that he could earn $700 by throwing the game.

Benton laughed about it, considering it a joke. He thought it over in the clubhouse, however, and later he told what had occurred to Art Fletcher, captain of the team.

Benton warmed up the next afternoon without hearing a thing and he thought nothing of it. As the Giants went out to take the field and Benton started for the box, Fletcher approached him and said:

"Mac says you'd better win this game."

"Sure I'm going to win it," Benton replied. And he did win the game.

Benton and Charley Herzog, then the Giants' third baseman, were called before President Heydler, but they both denied each other's charges and no action was taken.

Organized baseball is always having to answer the question, "Why didn't you do such-and-such?"

The same question will be asked, whatever is done in the Benton case.

Hittin' 'Em
and Missin' 'Em

Tonight is the night that the Rushville high school basketball team is going to begin hittin' the net. And we still maintain, that we feel sorry for Newcastle, after the Scarlet aggregation gets started.

JIM EVIDENTLY HASN'T ATTENDED A GAME THIS YEAR

The jinx will be dropped tonight. Jim Moore, rural route carrier, said he never saw Rushville lose a game, and he was going to attend tonight, in order to insure a victory. Some of you basket fans had better take Jim in custody after supper, and see to it that he attends.

BAND IS COMING ALONG WITH 'EM TONIGHT

The last word we had from Newcastle was to the effect that the Courier-Cadet band was coming along to help cheer their boys on to victory. Newcastle fell by the wayside last Friday at Muncie, and they are anxious to get back on the winning wagon again.

HIT THE BASKET IN THE RIGHT PLACE TONIGHT, GANG.

SHELBYVILLE CRYING ABOUT SOMETHING

Shelbyville evidently didn't like the report of the basketball game played here last Friday night, according to Shottin' 'em, in the News last night, but we can't figure out what they are crying about. Any fair minded fan who saw the game will have to admit that Shelbyville had a lucky night, and that all of those long shots don't come in every game. And another thing, if Rushville didn't have a strong defense, why did the visitors take such long shots. If anyone would cry, Rushville would have been washed away long ago, Shelby, but if we would ever cry over winning a game, it would be from receiving a big surprise.

RUSHVILLE COULD BE LOTS WORSE. TECH OF INDIANAPOLIS LOST THEIR TENTH STRAIGHT LAST NIGHT, LOOSING TO FRANKLIN.

Wonder what kind of an excuse some of the ardent basketball fans will make tonight, when they fail to show up at prayer meeting?

BETTER TO SAVE IT ANYWAY

Milroy and Moscow didn't play last night at Blue Ridge, as announced. A mix-up in dates caused the report to become circulated, but we kinda got an idea that these two teams will mix here Saturday in the tourney.

REMINISCENCES IN BASKETBALL HISTORY

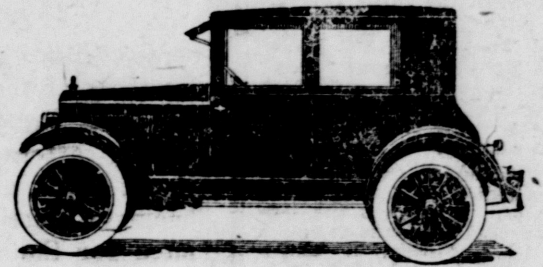

Rushville high school has had a basketball team for 15 years. A review of the scores, will show the results of the various teams in games played for the same period, corresponding to the time of the year for this week-end:

- Jan. 31, 1908—Shelbyville, 16; Rushville 15.
- Jan. 30, 1909—Connersville 24; Rushville 19.
- Jan. 28, 1910—Rushville 25; Liberty 12.
- Jan. 30 1911—Schools closed, epidemic.
- Jan. 26, 1912—Shelbyville 25; Rushville 10.
- Jan. 31, 1913—Newcastle 36; Rushville 10.
- Jan. 30, 1914—Rushville-Shelbyville (postponed).
- Jan. 29, 1915—Franklin 36; Rushville 20.
- Jan. 28, 1916—Rushville 29; Connersville 21.
- Jan. 26, 1917—Rushville 50; Newcastle 15.
- Jan. 25, 1918—Rushville 29; Connersville 22.
- Feb. 1, 1919—Newcastle 22; Rushville 18.
- Jan. 30, 1920—Shelbyville 37; Rushville 19.
- Jan. 28, 1921—Rushville 35; Connersville 28.
- Feb. 3, 1922—Rushville 37; Newcastle 28.
- Feb. 1, 1923—Rushville ?; Newcastle ?

It will be noted, that for the 13 games played in the last 15 years for the same period, Rushville won 6 of them. Rushville has played

RUSHVILLE HOPES TO EVEN UP FOR HER LOSS

Promises to Give Newcastle Battle When Rose City Team Invades Local Court Tonight

SECONDS WILL MEET GINGS

The Newcastle high school basketball team, having a win of one point over the Rushville high school team on their floor at Newcastle, will come here tonight for a forty minute tilt with the locals, and from all indications a close game may be expected.

Rushville, which has been playing in bad luck during recent games, is expected to show a rejuvenated spirit tonight, and has hopes of sending the Rose City team back with the short end of the score. A curtain raiser will be played between the Rushville second team and the Gings team. Newcastle is planning to bring a band along and Rushville will have their band on hand, which will furnish a great deal of music for the crowd.

Before the games tonight, all schools taking part in the county tourney here Saturday, will be represented, and the drawing for places will be made. The eight county teams in the tourney are New Salem, Milroy, Moscow, Manilla, Webb, Rushville, Raleigh and Arlington.

SHAMROCKS DEFEAT MERITS

Rushville Teams Clash in Catholic Hall Wednesday Night

The Rushville Shamrocks defeated the Rushville Merits Wednesday night in a game of basketball at the Catholic hall, and the final count was 53 to 36. Moore, for the winners, was the star with ten field goals, and Martin followed with seven. All five players on the Merits shared about equally in points.

The two teams lined up as follows: Shamrocks—Martin and Risk, forwards; Kelley center; Moore and Davis, guards. Substitution, Readle for Risk; Merits—Adams and Christopher 4, Cooper 4, Snyder 3, Rankings 3. Foul goals, Moore 3 out of 5. Referee Dailey.

100 WAYS To Make Money

By BILLY WINNER

If I Lost Valuables—

I FOUND a gold pencil the other day. I looked through the Daily Republican "Lost and Found" Want Ads and there, sure enough, was an advertisement for the very pencil I had found.

Now I know what to do if I ever lose anything—advertise for it in The Daily Republican. Maybe you think this isn't a way to make money, but it is. Finding lost articles saves the price of replacing them with new. Money saved is money made, you know.

WOMAN'S HEALTH RESTORED

She Claims Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did It After Everything Else Failed

Milwaukee, Wisconsin.—"I feel that I ought to let you know about my case. I was ailing and could barely do my housework and washing. I was so run-down, just from having one child. I took a lot of medicines and had doctors. Then I gave them all up and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I feel wonderfully good now. I do everything that comes along, and we all take your medicine as a tonic when we don't feel just so. I am thankful for what the Vegetable Compound has done for my health and for my family."—Mrs. MARY SAIECHECK, 944 28th Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Letters like these testify to the value of the Vegetable Compound. These women speak from the fullness of their hearts. They describe as correctly as they can their conditions: First, those symptoms that affected them most conspicuously; and later the disappearance of those symptoms. They are sincere expressions of gratitude. For nearly fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been so praised by women.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

WHEN MIXED WITH SULPHUR IT BRINGS BACK ITS BEAUTIFUL LUSTRE AT ONCE

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold. Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound", which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Plain Facts for Fair Minds

The literal truth is, that the Hupmobile is a fine car at a low price. You can establish that truth easily, and to your own satisfaction.

The facts are available to anyone. Any independent garage mechanic will tell you how soundly and wisely the Hupmobile is engineered; how finely it is built.

Any Hupmobile owner will tell you how amazingly little it costs for upkeep, and for operation; and how thoroughly reliable and consistent it is in service throughout the years.

Its comparative absence from the used-car columns will give you some idea of its high value when you re-sell it; and its price will convince you that it is one of the world's greatest motorcar values when you buy it.

CORN SHOW OPENS WITH 216 ENTRIES

As Awards Are Made This Afternoon,
Farmers Organize County Corn
Growers' Association

GIRLS' CLUB MAKES EXHIBIT

Prize Winning Corn Will Be On View
Friday And Two Addresses Will Be On The Program

The annual Rush county corn show opened this morning with 216 entries in all classes, and judging was begun this afternoon by C. E. Troyer of LaFontaine. It was expected the awards would all be made by tonight.

The display of corn is on exhibit on the second floor of the court house in the commissioners' room, and in the corridor of the second floor.

Practically all of the entries were in by noon, and were put in position according to the townships, or according to the classes in which the corn was entered. The 216 entries included all kinds, and the junior classes, which were well filled with entries.

A large delegation of farmers was meeting this afternoon in the assembly room of the court house, perfecting a new organization, known as the Rush county Corn Growers' association, which when organized, will be affiliated with the state association.

This afternoon the plan was being discussed by the farmers, and a constitution and by-laws were being prepared for adoption. The election of officers for the new organization also will be made today, when the association is definitely formed.

In addition to the corn show, there is an interesting exhibit on the second floor, in the west end of the corridor of the work accomplished by the Union township Girls Club. The display was confined to needlework. The girls' club work in that township is in charge of Mrs. Oscar Reese.

Friday is looked forward to as being the banner day of the corn show, when two addresses will be given. In the morning at ten o'clock, Charles J. Patterson of Tipton will speak and in the afternoon Charles E. Watkins of Muncie will address the farmers. These two speakers are well known here, and have frequently addressed the farmers on timely subjects.

The ribbons will also be in place Friday and farmers will continue to have an opportunity of viewing the exhibitors. The prizes for the show this year amounts to $385 in cash, and also three silver cups will be awarded to winners.

WEATHER BLAMED FOR THE POOR ATTENDANCE

Only One Session Of Anderson Township Farmers' Institute Held At Milroy Wednesday

TWO SPEAKERS ON PROGRAM

On account of sickness and the inclement weather the Anderson township farmers' institute held at Milroy Wednesday afternoon was not very well attended, but the few that were present enjoyed a splendid program.

The speaker for the afternoon were Mrs. R. A. Ogg of Greencastle, who spoke on "The Art of Getting Things Done" and R. L. Thompson of Topeka whose topic for discussion was "Keeping the Children on the Farm." Both speeches were splendid and gave many new and interesting facts to the audience. At the beginning of the program the Misses Mildred Booth and Florine Hood rendered an instrumental duet on the piano.

During the business session the farmers organization of Anderson township elected the following officers: Oliver Readmond, chairman; W. D. Crane, secretary; Clyde Archer, treasurer. Mrs. Roy Power was appointed chairman of the Woman's committee.

Arrangements had been made for an all day meeting, but owing to many cases of illness in the township, only an afternoon meeting was held.

CAST OF MINSTREL SHOW SPECIAL GUESTS

Kiwanis Club "Ladies Night" Wednesday Evening Regarded As Best On Record

SPLENDID PROGRAM GIVEN

At what was regarded as one of the best "Ladies Night" meetings in the history of the Kiwanis club entertained at the Social club Wednesday evening in compliment to members of the cast of the Black and White Minstrels which were given under the auspices of the club several weeks ago.

Following an elaborate dinner, a program was given and the remainder of the evening was spent with dancing and at cards. Dr. J. B. Kinsinger president, presided at the program, and William A. Young expressed the sincere gratitude of all Kiwanians to members of the minstrel cast for the part they had in making the two performances successful.

The first number on the program was a vocal duet by Mrs. George Hogsett and Denning Havens, Mrs. Hogsett playing the accompaniment, followed by a violin number by Miss Marian Kinsinger, with piano accompaniment, by Miss Brenda Kinsinger. Will Jay told a few stories that pleased the banqueters immensely and Mrs. Hogsett gave two readings that were appreciated. The vocal selections by Dr. Hale Pearsey and a vocal duet by Mrs. Hogsett and B. F. Miller closed the program.

Music for the dancing that followed and also during the banquet, was provided by McGinnis' orchestra of this city.

EXPLAINS WHY EAST END OF ROAD IS ROUGH

A. O. Hastings Of Greenfield, District
Engineer, Says Highwayman's
Truck Was Out Of Commission

IS BACK ON THE JOB AGAIN

In response to complaints that state road No. 39, from Rushville to Indianapolis, has been in bad condition, A. O. Hastings of Greenfield, district engineer, says that section D, which is the Rushville end of the road, has been rough on account of the motor track of this section being out of repair.

Mr. Hastings declared in a letter received here this week that the truck which has been undergoing repairs for the past two weeks, is now ready for use and that section D will be placed in shape immediately.

Section A, the Indianapolis end of the road, has been thoroughly dragged this week, but still has a little excess of new material. The middle section, Mr. Hastings said, are in good shape as the man in charge there did a first class job of dragging this week.

Mr. Hastings maintains that the taxpayers are getting the maximum of service from the state highway commission, pointing out that roads taken over by the commission are in much better shape than they were prior to the time the commission had charge. He says that truckmen are paid by the hour and not straight salary.

Evangelist Says It Finds Men in Every Degree of Attainment, in Every Depth of Iniquity

SERMON BY W. McCLEAN WORK

Richmond Pastor to Deliver Third of Series Tonight—Reid Memorial
Quartette to Sing

The reach of God's love was defined by the Rev. W. McClean Work of Richmond at the revival service at the First United Presbyterian church Wednesday evening. It was the second of a series of sermons on Ephesians 3:18.

The first of the series it was "The Breadth of Salvation" and last night it was "The Length of Salvation". The speaker divided his sermon into two parts—the extent of God's plan and the reach of God's love. He said in beginning:

"Salvation is an old theme. It is as old as the history of man on the earth. Since the fall of man, the seed of the woman has been bruising the head of the serpent. By a progressive revelation God has been making known to the world his plan by which it may be saved. In Old Testament times he revealed himself progressively as man was able to receive it. Now the truth is in permanent form and while He is still revealing truth to men by His Holy Spirit, there is nothing new. The case of Lazarus and the rich man was cited to show that even a visitant from the other world could add nothing to Moses and the prophets that would at all assist men in the matter of repentance."

The Reach of God's Love was shown to include all men. From all eternity God loved man and planned his salvation. It finds men in every degree of attainment and in every depth of iniquity. He has shown himself "Able to save to the uttermost all that come unto God through Him." No case is hopeless. No man need despair. The disease of sin is not beyond the skill of the Great Physician, the evangelist said.

Salvation itself was defined and the speaker showed exactly in what, in his opinion, salvation consisted. Four blessings come to every saved man. (a) He is set free from fear. He is not afraid of any eventuality. Since "All things work together for good to those that love God", the child of God need not give himself undue concern about anything. No disaster can overtake him. No ill befall. No enemy assail. In other words the Christian can keep his morale at all times. (b) Salvation enables one to be conqueror over sorrow. At the open grave the comforting words of the Saviour refresh the soul—"I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth on me shall never die. And

Those Who Prefer Torture of Steel Staves to Torture of No Chocolates Learn Anti-Corset Bill Will Be Withheld Until 1925 Session of Legislature

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 1—Women in the "fat and forty" class who prefer the torture of steel staves to the torture of no chocolates breathed a sigh of relief today, and broke a corset string.

For it became known that the anti-corset bill which the Anna Hoeltke Lee Anti-Corset Society had decided to present to the legislature will be withheld until the 1925 session.

"We need more time to arouse public sentiment against the tight laces to which we attribute many of the world's ills," said Anna Hoeltke Lee, founder of the society and herself uncorseted.

The bill planned by the society would impose a $500 fine on anyone manufacturing or selling corsets.

But the "fat and forty" had better eat all their chocolates and revel all they please in their steel staves during the next two years, because Anna Hoeltke Lee says her bill will become a law. Meanwhile she will carry on her propaganda.

Mrs. Lee is writing an autobiography telling of divine visions she declares she has seen calling upon her to free people from the corset evil.

Berlin, Feb. 1—Drastic and severe repression of German resistance in the Ruhr and Rhineland followed completion of the first series of Franco-Belgian measures to enforce reparations today.

Forty more Ruhr officials were ordered expelled today, including the burgomasters of Horne and Cleve. Requisitioning of coal was started by French troops at Bochum.

Two officials who protested were arrested. The German miners struck in reprisal, whereupon troops cleared the Weit Mar mine and stood guard. The whole attitude of the invaders was reported as more severe than hitherto.

SLAP AT STATE COMMISSION

Bill Would Take Mutual Telephones
From Jurisdiction of Public Service Body

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 1—A slap at the public service commission, the recommending for passage of a garnishee bill and the killing of five school bills, were some of the accomplishments of the state legislature today.

The slap at the public service commission was delivered when Representatives Mabbitt, Hammitt and Myers introduced a bill to take mutual telephone companies from the jurisdiction of the commission.

A majority committee report recommending passage of the garnishee bill was concurred in by the senate after a sharp debate. The bill would permit any person, firm or corporation to garnishee the income of a debtor.

The five school bills which the lower house killed on recommendations of the committee on education are as follows:

Authorizing county superintendents to serve as attendance officers in certain counties, introduced by Representative Leveron.

Repealing the state probation law introduced by Representative Kenney.

Abolishing the office of county truant officer and placing his duties in the hands of the township trustee, introduced by Representative Myers.

Providing for the establishment of a township board of education which would be composed of a trustee, two elected citizens and an advisor, introduced by Representative McCloskey.

Providing for township trustee to appoint more school township superintendents, introduced by Representative Larrabee.

One more step in the fight over the sale by the state of Lake county land to the Jones-Laughlin Steel Company was taken in a bill introduced by Representative Love. The measure provides that the state must sell land on petition of five persons and that if it can not be sold for cash at a public sale, it may be sold

Day to go on to Richmond

BEFORE STATE COMMISSION

Agitation is on foot in the vicinity of Manilla to have restored the two passenger trains, recently removed from the schedule of the Pennsylvania, because of the poor service which is now affecting the towns along the line between Columbus and Richmond.

The matter has also been taken up with the Public Service commission, because many of the smaller towns now have only one mail and passenger train a day in each direction.

The movement on foot is to have trains number 17 and 416 operated. These trains now leave Madison about eight o'clock in the morning and go as far as Columbus, where the crew remains all day, and returns to Madison in the evening. The people maintain that the train could be operated on to Richmond with no additional expense for crews, because they are paid for laying over the entire day in Columbus. These trains formerly ran between Madison and Indianapolis, via Columbus.

It is understood that the movement is taking shape in all of the smaller towns along the line, and also is being fostered by the Chamber of Commerce at Shelbyville.

Fishermen Green With Envy Since Record Catch Reported This Week

Even Break The Ice In Effort to Equal Number of Fish Brought in Last Sunday by Will Manning and Jesse Drake—Fish Story From St. Petersburg, Florida, Related
by James W. Trowbridge of Mays,
Who Is There This Winter

The average layman, who looks at you with a vacant stare when you mention Isaac Walton, as if he didn't get the allusion, didn't know that fish bite any time except the good old summer time, but judging from the stories that are being repeated now, fish no longer have any regard for time or place.

Since Will Manning and Jesse Drake reported their catch of last Sunday, Dr. Frank H. Green, who is seriously afflicted with fishitis, has been so envious, that he broke the ice Monday, according to Mr. Manning, in an effort to get some fish and beat the record in the number hauled in, although he can't hope to exceed the record for early catches.

In retaliation, the envious ones are quietly circulating the story that Mr. Manning, who said that he threw five bass back in order to remain within the law and not bring in over a dozen, is a better fish story teller than he is a fisherman.

The word battle will go on, but doubtless many local nimrods will turn green with envy when they hear what James W. Trowbridge of Mays did down at St. Petersburg, Florida, where they bite the year around. Here it is in his own words:

"I went fishing with a party of forty out in the gulf thirty miles. It was one of the most thrilling days of my life. Our catch was 650 pounds. The largest fish caught weighed sixteen pounds. I caught four in thirty minutes, the four weighing thirty pounds. I caught the four in three throws, the largest one weighing ten pounds. I had two hooks on my line and landed one on each hook."

"I will not attempt to tell you how I felt when I got them on the boat, but will let Frank Cochran of Spiceland tell it when he comes home. Our

BOYS DEFACE BILLBOARDS

Warning Issued Against Practice Which Is Punishable By Law

A warning was issued today to boys both young and old, who have been making it a practice of defacing bill boards distributed throughout the city and owned by Walter Easley, manager of the Princess theatre. One of the boys was caught in the act of mutilating one of the posters yesterday, and he was given a lecture, and released with the promise that he would not repeat the act.

Mr. Easley stated that in the future if anyone is caught or reported to be destroying his property, that arrests will be made, and the offense is punishable with a fine, and a jail sentence may be added.

SCOUT ORGANIZATION BEING BUILT UP HERE

D. R. Merrell Announces He Will be Glad to Talk Over Work With All Interested Boys

EXAMINATIONS FOR RANK

A Boy Scout organization is being quietly built up here, without the blare of trumpets, but on a solid foundation that will stand the test of time, it became known today, when D. R. Merrell, teacher of grades 5B and 6B at the Jackson school, announced that he was starting the examinations for Scout rank this week.

Mr. Merrell, who has had six years experience as a Scout executive, is starting on a small scale because experience has taught him that beginning with every boy of Scout age in town enrolled, eventually proves fatal to the organization because boys soon lose interest when Scout leaders can not give them the attention necessary.

Most Rushville boys know about the Scout movement, but many do not know about the organization work going on. Mr. Merrell says that he will be glad to talk over the work with any boy who is interested.

Valuable prizes in connection with the Scout examinations are being offered. The four boys passing the Tenderfoot examination with the highest honors will be awarded a free trip to Indianapolis and a free trip to Cincinnati will be given to the four highest in the second class examination. The award for the four highest in the first class examination will be a two-day trip to the Turkey Run state park.

SEVERAL RIBS FRACTURED

Carmelita Geraghty Hurt—Practicing For Moving Picture

Miss Carmelita Geraghty of Hollywood, California, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom J. Geraghty, formerly of this city, was injured while practicing for a part in the movie picture, "Souls For Sale," according to the following from The New York Sunday News of January 28:

Rupert Hughes is using the famous Hollywood Hotel as a location for "Souls for Sale." Whady'a mean, famous? Well, anyhow, he's about finished there and will next make the dangerous aerial circus scenes. Add danger of the movies note. Carmelita Geraghty, daughter of Tom Geraghty, fell and sustained a fracture of several ribs while practicing ballet steps for the picture.

ADOLPH ZUKOR PRESENTS A

George Fitzmaurice PRODUCTION
"To Have and To Hold"
WITH Betty Compson and Bert Lytell

AMUSEMENTS

Shows Industrial Progress

Perhaps the most unique dramatization of industrial progress ever screened was presented to the public Wednesday evening at the Graham Annex auditorium under the title of "The story of an Automobile."

The film bears the seal of the United States Department of Commerce and will be exhibited in all parts of the world. The scenes are laid in the factories of The Studebaker Corporation and vividly detail the building of an automobile.

You see the raw materials enter—and then after hundreds of fascinating and instructive operations—the finished car is driven on its own power from the final assembly line. Skilled workmen perform operations which must not vary more than one-half of one-thousandth of an inch in measurement. Labor saving devices and huge machines, almost human in the operation they perform, furnish dramatic evidence of the advanced methods employed in building Studebaker cars.

The picture was brought to Rushville through the efforts of P. T. Vancamp and Oneal Bros., local Studebaker dealers.

This picture is of interest to anyone who ever rode in a motor car.

Tom Mix At Mystic

Tom Mix, the popular star of the Fox constellation, was once named by a newspaper critic "the movie hero who never made a failure," and ever since, Tom's one ambition has been to live up to the criterion which the newspaper writer had set for him.

That he has been able to achieve this goal is attested by the vast following of fans who acclaim him the greatest screen hero of his type. That Tom deserves the praise he has received is easily demonstrated by his work in the latest William Fox production, "Just Tony," which comes to the Mystic Theatre today.

noted horse, "Tony" and was written by Max Brand as a novel under the original title of "Alearatz." In this photoplay of romance and friendship and western valor, Tom again rides the edges of a pantomime hell, shoots with the accuracy of supernatural aim and fights for the love of a beautiful woman in such fashion as to thrill the most blasé of picture-goers.

That Tom is assured of success in his new venture is certain. Pictures like "Just Tony" will not make the star fall short of his "never made a failure" slogan. And once again he clinched his reputation as a versatile star with the brand new role he plays—a role that beside being pleasing and refreshing, is a most difficult one to enact.

"To Have and To Hold"

The management of the Princess Theatre begs to announce the presentation at that playhouse for two days beginning today of George Fitzmaurice's superb Paramount production, "To Have and To Hold," one of the most beautiful and romantic pictures ever screened.

Betty Compson, Paramount star, and Bert Lytell, a well-known stage favorite, are featured, the former appearing as the ward of King James I. of England, and the latter as a soldier adventurer of Virginia in the early Seventeenth century. The supporting cast includes many well-known Paramount Stock Company players.

The story of "To Have and To Hold" has great dramatic power, irresistible heart appeal and in its development, many thrilling scenes, including duels, Indian attacks, and encounters with pirates. No one can see this splendid photoplay without visualizing most profitably the scenes attending the settlement of Virginia. This is a picture you cannot afford to ignore.

Metal Valued at $600, Belonging to Dr. B. R. Kirkin is Destroyed

Muncie, Ind., Feb. 1.—An effort will be made in a few days at Pittsburgh to extract $600 worth of radium from ashes taken from the furnace of the Home Hospital here. The radium was thrown into the furnace with some waste material.

It was the property of Dr. B. R. Kirkin and was lost while he was treating a patient. Special instruments were brought here by an expert from Pittsburgh which indicated the presence of the precious substance in the furnace.

Dr. Kirkin is a brother of Floyd Kirkin of the Rush County Mills and is well known by a number of Rushville people.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit, 15c and 30c.

A NEEDED PRAYER:—Wilt thou not revive us again; that Thy people may rejoice in thee.—Psalm 85: 6.

Farming on The Up Grade

The business of farming is on the up grade. There can be no doubt of this because farmers themselves testify to this fact and further evidence is found in the announcement that farm crops were worth three billion dollars more in 1922 than in 1921. That agriculture continues to mend financially is further shown by index figures just announced by the department of agriculture.

The spirit of optimism that prevails among our farmer business men is evidence enough that conditions have improved, but the figures that are available on the subject reveal that it is a brand of optimism that is not based on any flimsy economic theory, but upon actual facts. We hear a great deal from the agricultural theorists about the farmer's need for credit, but what he wants most is for the value of his products to continue to mount as they have, and his credit will no longer be a source of worry for him.

The index number of the purchasing power of farm products in terms of other commodities farmers buy is placed at 68 for December, as compared with 66 for November. The average for the year is 69, compared with 67 in 1921, all of which shows farmers are headed in the right direction though they may not yet be out of the woods.

The improved condition for December is brought about by an increase of 5 points in the index number of the average farm prices of ten leading crops, and a decrease of 1 point in the prices of commodities, excluding farm and food products, that farmers buy.

For the year the average farm prices of ten leading crops is given an index number of 113 as compared with 109 in 1921 and with 238 in 1920. The average farm price for the year of live stock is placed at 111 compared with 107 in 1921 and with 168 in 1920. The average index number of prices of commodities other than farm products which farmers buy is placed at 163 for 1922 compared with 161 in 1921 and with 234 in 1920.

The first move of the present national administration was to relieve the farmers so far as they could be relieved by governmental action. President Harding appointed to the federal reserve board his fellow townsman, D. R. Crissinger, who was known to be an advocate of loans from banks at rates as low as could be justified. That had been Crissinger's practice in his own bank. Soon after the change in the position of comptroller of the currency, which carried with it membership on the federal reserve board, rates began to come down, and all lines of industry began to experience renewed activity.

Moreover, the Harding administration promptly put into effect the new provision for loans through the war finance corporation, advancing to agricultural associations the funds necessary to enable them to market their crops in an orderly manner instead of selling in haste at any prices that could be had.

These two changes in national policy not only brought immediate improvement in the status of agriculture but it made the farmers' larger buyers of commodities in general and revived confidence in business conditions. Today the only serious check to industrial activity is the inability of the railroads to handle the traffic because of the deterioration of equipment resulting from a long period of suppression and government operation.

Income Tax Facts

NO. 3

Income-tax returns, sworn to before a notary public or other person authorized to administer an oath, must be filed with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer lives or has his principal place of business on or before midnight of March 15, 1923. Forms 1040A for filing returns of individual income of $5,000 or less and Forms 1040 for filing returns of income in excess of $5,000 have been sent by collectors to persons who filed similar returns for the year 1921. Failure to receive a form, however, does not relieve the taxpayer of his obligation to file a return and pay the tax on time. Forms may be obtained from the offices of collectors of internal revenue and deputy collectors.

Revenue officers will be sent into every county in the United States to aid taxpayers in making out their returns. The advisory service heretofore offered city residents will be continued. This service, including the administration of the oath, is without cost to the taxpayers.

Taxpayers, before seeking such assistance, however, are advised to read carefully the instructions on the forms. Many questions, which on the face may appear perplexing, can be solved by study of the instructions. Especially, in justice to themselves, taxpayers are advised to note the instructions with regard to credits for personal exemptions and dependents and deductions. In justice to the Government they should note carefully the instructions with regard to income from "salaries, wages, commissions, etc., business or profession, interest on bank deposits, income from partnerships, fiduciaries, etc., income from rents and royalties and other income."

The taxpayer who, when the form is received will devote to it an hour's study, will go a long way in assuring himself that he is making a correct return.

LEAKAGE IS NEGLIGIBLE

Assistant Prohibition Commissioner Comments On Recent Charges

Washington, Feb. 1—Assistant Prohibition Commissioner Jones today came to the assistance of harassed diplomats with the assertion that leakage of diplomatic liquor into bootleg channels here is negligible.

After a feverish week in which charges and denials of leakage of diplomatic liquors from embassies flew fast and one legation was named by an arrested bootlegger as his source of supply, Jones came to the rescue with oil to pour on the troubled waters.

"If leakage never amounts to any more than it does today or has in the past, there will never be any grounds for employment by the prohibition bureau," Jones declared.

WATSON SEES THE PRESIDENT

Washington, Feb. 1—The American debt funding commission will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon to draft recommendations to congress which will enable this government to consummate the agreement for funding the British debt to the United States.

Mr. Harding will send a message to congress urging modification, Senators Lodge and Watson announced, after a lengthy conference with the president.

The message probably will not be sent before next week, as the American commission is not expected to complete its recommendations for modification until Saturday.

On the basis of this information Mellon summoned the American commission.

RUSSIA BECOMES INVOLVED

Luzanne, Feb. 1—Russia today took part in negotiations at Luzanne, apparently seeking to take advantage of differences between France and Great Britain to impose the view point that the straits of the Dardanelles should be closed to war vessels.

Marquis Curzon replied on behalf of the allies that the question of freedom of the straits could not be considered.

George Tchitcherin, head of the Soviet delegation, then said the question would be an open one as far as Russia was concerned.

pletely cut off from the rest of the country. Not an ounce of coal was permitted to leave the district for German destinations.

At the same time, German custom stations which formerly had served for collections on goods entering the country from Belgium, France and Luxembourg were taken over entirely with troops and French civilians such with troops and French civilians such employees as quit, and proceed immediately about the business of collecting customs.

More and more French troops moved into the Ruhr district today, until reports from certain districts made it appear as though the occupation had just begun. Among the forces that were sent in however, were included many troops trained in railroad work. Essen, central city of Ruhr fuel industry, bore the brunt of the invasion. Completely isolated from the outside world as far as rail or wire communication were concerned, the city even began to feel the pinch of hunger.

The entire Ruhr was not without a touch of this, in fact. With transport disrupted, distribution of foodstuffs was seriously hindered. The French are buying out private stores, sending prices rocketing.

The German government is preparing to establish motor trucks to run foodstuffs in and out of the Ruhr should rail communication be completely cut off.

The shortage of milk is most severe, while meat grows scarcer every day in the occupied.

With these difficulties, the inhabitants of the Ruhr maintained a stubborn front and the French found it necessary to deport 15 more officials today, including the director of the Essen branch of the Reichbank.

Following receipt of a joint Franco-Belgian note finding her in default of January 31 payments and insisting upon a less recalcitrant attitude toward the invasion. Germany dispatched to Paris a hotly worded note, protesting against accusations of German breach of the Versailles treaty and demanding troops be withdrawn from the Essen hospital.

A minor disturbance was reported at Aachen when 25 students were arrested by the French because they cheered the district president when he was taken into custody, but for the most part there was remarkable calm throughout the Ruhr and Rhineland.

Days Watch Over Dead Body Relatives Give Up After 9

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 1—Relatives who kept a nine-day watch over the body of John Stevenson expecting him to return to life, today announced they were reconciled to the pronouncement of death by coroner officials.

An autopsy performed after authorities broke into the room where the death watch was kept and seized the body showed an organic disease caused death.

Stevenson before lapsing into unconsciousness declared he desired to prove the control of the mind over the body to the extent of even bringing about suspended animation. He declared after a short period his body would again show life and relatives and followers of his strange teaching of evolution were convinced that his experiment would be successful.

Tuberculosis caused death, physicians announced.

Benton Case and Watchdogs

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 1.—Every time anything like the present Rube Benton case comes to light, the mistakes made in the days before Commissioner Landis took charge of baseball are made more and more striking.

The tendency to use the white-wash brush instead of the iron rod is responsible for every mess into which organized baseball has found itself.

Figuring that some safety rested in silence and that the interest of business demanded a covering up, organized baseball took the attitude that the Hal Chase, Heinie Zimmerman, Lee Magee, Benton and other cases were none of the fans' business and they allowed the public to think as it wished.

So in 1919 it is not surprising that the "Black Sox" thought—"We can get away with this. Even if we do get caught, they won't let it get out."

Ban Johnson has always aspired to the role of the watchdog of baseball, the guardian of the grand national pastime, always on duty to watch and safeguard the sport.

Since he was the first to raise the row publicly about the return of Rube Benton to the major league, Ban probably thinks his duty nobly done in this instance.

In advancing any claims for honor and glory in this case, however, Ban might explain why it was that it took him three years to complain that Benton made a bet on the Cincinnati Reds in the 1919 world's series.

Some day when he is in a reminiscent mood, Ban also might explain why it was that the White Sox scandal was never made public by him, until it looked like the Sox were going to beat out the Cleveland Indians or the 1920 pennant, when Ban had known about the scandal for a year.

Ban and John Heydler, national league president, and Commissioner Landis might also explain how they can allow Benton to play in a minor league without protest, if he is barred from the majors.

National League club owners who are objecting to the return of Benton base their opposition not on the world's series bet he made, but upon and incident that happened in 1917, about which many conflicting tales have been told.

Benton's side of the affair as told to J. W. Norton, president of the St. Paul ball club and told by him recently, was in substance as follows:

It was late in the season of 1917, the Giants were playing in Chicago and one afternoon McGraw, contrary to his usual custom, asked Benton to be ready to pitch the following afternoon. Benton was approached then by one of the Giant players and told that he could earn $700 by throwing the game.

Benton laughed about it, considering it a joke. He thought it over in the clubhouse, however, and later he told what had occurred to Art Fletcher, captain of the team.

Benton warmed up the next afternoon without hearing a thing and he thought nothing of it. As the Giants went out to take the field and Benton started for the box, Fletcher approached him and said:

"Mac says you'd better win this game."

"Sure I'm going to win it," Benton replied. And he did win the game.

Benton and Charley Herzog, then the Giants' third baseman, were called before President Heydler, but they both denied each other's charges and no action was taken.

Organized baseball is always having to answer the question, "Why didn't you do such-and-such?"

The same question will be asked, whatever is done in the Benton case.

Hittin' 'Em
and Missin' 'Em

Tonight is the night that the Rushville high school basketball team is going to begin hittin' the net. And we still maintain, that we feel sorry for Newcastle, after the Scarlet aggregation gets started.

JIM EVIDENTLY HASN'T ATTENDED A GAME THIS YEAR

The jinx will be dropped tonight. Jim Moore, rural route carrier, said he never saw Rushville lose a game, and he was going to attend tonight, in order to insure a victory. Some of you basket fans had better take Jim in custody after supper, and see to it that he attends.

BAND IS COMING ALONG WITH 'EM TONIGHT

The last word we had from Newcastle was to the effect that the Courier-Cadet band was coming along to help cheer their boys on to victory. Newcastle fell by the way-side last Friday at Muncie, and they are anxious to get back on the winning wagon again.

HIT THE BASKET IN THE RIGHT PLACE TONIGHT, GANG.

Shelbyville evidently didn't like the report of the basketball game played here last Friday night, according to Shettin' 'em, in the News last night, but we can't figure out what they are crying about. Any fair minded fan who saw the game will have to admit that Shelbyville had a lucky night, and that all of those long shots don't come in every game. And another thing, if Rushville didn't have a strong defense, why did the visitors take such long shots. If anyone would cry, Rushville would have been washed away long ago, Shelby, but if we would ever cry over winning a game, it would be from receiving a big surprise.

RUSHVILLE COULD BE LOTS WORSE. TECH OF INDIANAPOLIS LOST THEIR TENTH STRAIGHT LAST NIGHT, LOOSING TO FRANKLIN.

Wonder what kind of an excuse some of the ardent basketball fans will make tonight, when they fail to show up at prayer meeting?

BETTER TO SAVE IT ANYWAY

Milroy and Moscow didn't play last night at Blue Ridge, as announced. A mix-up in dates caused the report to become circulated, but we kinda got an idea that these two teams will mix here Saturday in the tourney.

REMINISCENCES IN BASKETBALL HISTORY

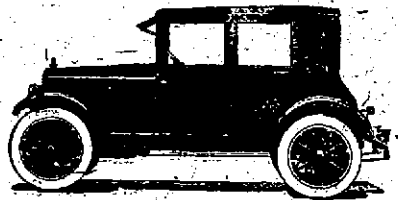

Rushville high school has had a basketball team for 15 years. A review of the scores, will show the results of the various teams in games played for the same period, corresponding to the time of the year for this week-end:

- Jan. 31, 1908—Shelbyville, 16; Rushville 15.
- Jan. 30, 1909—Connersville 24; Rushville 19.
- Jan. 28, 1910—Rushville 25; Liberty 12.
- Jan. 30 1911—Schools closed, epidemic.
- Jan. 26, 1912—Shelbyville 25; Rushville 10.
- Jan. 31, 1913—Newcastle 36; Rushville 10.
- Jan. 30, 1914—Rushville-Shelbyville (postponed).
- Jan. 29, 1915—Franklin 36; Rushville 20.
- Jan. 28, 1916—Rushville 29; Connersville 21.
- Jan. 26, 1917—Rushville 50; Newcastle 15.
- Jan. 25, 1918—Rushville 29; Connersville 22.
- Feb. 1, 1919—Newcastle 22; Rushville 18.
- Jan. 30, 1920—Shelbyville 37; Rushville 19.
- Jan. 28, 1921—Rushville 35; Connersville 28.
- Feb. 3, 1922—Rushville 37; Newcastle 28.
- Feb. 1, 1923—Rushville ?; Newcastle ?

It will be noted that for the 13 games played in the last 15 years, Rushville won 13, lost 3, and drew 3. For the same period, Rushville has played 5. Referee Dailey.

Promises to Give Newcastle Battle When Rose City Team Invades Local Court Tonight

The Newcastle high school basketball team, having a win of one point over the Rushville high school team on their floor at Newcastle, will come here tonight for a forty minute tilt with the locals, and from all indications a close game may be expected.

Rushville, which has been playing in bad luck during recent games, is expected to show a rejuvenated spirit tonight, and has hopes of sending the Rose City team back with the short end of the score. A curtain raiser will be played between the Rushville second team and the Gings team. Newcastle is planning to bring a band along and Rushville will have their band on hand, which will furnish a great deal of music for the crowd.

Before the games tonight, all schools taking part in the county tourney here Saturday, will be represented, and the drawing for places will be made. The eight county teams in the tourney are New Salem, Milroy, Moscow, Manilla, Webb, Rushville, Raleigh and Arlington.

The two teams lined up as follows: Shamrocks—Martin and Risk, forwards; Kelley center; Moore and Davis, guards; Substitution, Readle for Risk; Merits—Adams and Christner, forwards; Cooper, center; Snyder and Rankins, guards; field goals, Martin 7, Risk, Kelley 4, Moore 10, Davis, 3, Adams 4, Christner 4, Cooper 4, Snyder 3, Rank 3. About Child-Birth

An eminent physician has shown to thousands of expectant mothers just how to be free from dread, and from much of the suffering which many others experience for months right up to the moment when the little one arrives!

Mrs. Wm. Washington, 107 Louise Ave., Nashville, Tenn., says: "There is positively no woman on earth that would be without 'Mother's Friend' during expectancy if she only knew the value of comfort."

"Mother's Friend" is externally applied to the region of the abdomen, back and hips. It relieves the tension on nerves and ligaments as month follows month. Finally, it makes child-birth a joy instead of a painful dread.

Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradford Regulator Co., 24-A-7, Atlanta, Ga., for a free wonderful book containing information every expectant mother should have. FEDERAL GOVERNMENT MAY AID PROSECUTION

Government May Take Hand in Second Trial of the Herrin Riot Case Set For Feb. 12

GOVERNMENT INVESTIGATES

Marion, Ill., Feb. 1.—Federal prosecution of the men accused of murder in connection with the Herrin massacre loomed today as Williamson county officials made preparation for the second Herrin riot trial which will open Monday, February 12.

Government agents have been investigating the records of the Lester strip mine, destroyed during the riots of last June by a mob of union miners, and may take charge of the prosecution on the theory that interstate commerce was destroyed by the massacre, according to Assistant Attorney General C. W. Middlekauff. Middlekauff was in charge of the prosecution in the first Herrin trial in which five miners were acquitted of murder charges.

Officials of the Lester mine, who were attempting to mine and ship coal in the face of the nation-wide miners' strike last June, have indicated they were planning to file a suit for damages against the United Mine Workers of America because of the riots. Their suit would be filed in federal court and would be based on a plea that the mob, in destroying the mine, interfered with interstate commerce.

Federal prosecution of the murder cases as suggested by Middlekauff, however, would be considered a new move against the miners' union which has been defending the men indicted for murder.

DON'T GET UP NIGHTS FOR BLADDER ILLS

Dayton Man Reports Relief With Simple Remedy After Getting Up 15 or 20 Times Each Night for Two Years

Mr. Julius Mayer, 1430 East Fifth St., says in his own home paper, the Dayton News: "For two years my bladder caused me to get up many times at night and too frequent in the day. After taking a few doses of Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula), my bladder works perfectly normal and I can sleep all night."

Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula) acts on the kidneys and bladder, as Epsom Salts do on the bowels. You will be surprised at the impurities which come from the bladder after taking a few doses of Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula). It is not a patent medicine, as the formula is on the package. The tablets cost 2¢ each. This price makes it possible to place in the formula, several high-priced drugs, which are useful to give relief. It is not likely that you have ever taken a remedy similar to this. Try a few doses for backache, scalding, scanty or high-colored urine and frequent desire at night. You can see the formula and learn more about Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula) at Pittman and Wilson and drug stores everywhere, or write The Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. —Advertisement though he were dead yet shall he live again." (c) Salvation renders the one saved useful. A lazy Christian is a contradiction of terms. God gives his saved ones something to do. Each one makes his contribution to the success of the kingdom of Jesus Christ. (d) Then the salvation provided is an eternal thing. It begins here and now and lasts forever. "He that believeth hath eternal life, and cometh not into condemnation, but is passed out of death into life."

Tonight Mr. Work will deliver the third in the series on "The Depth of Salvation." On Friday night the last of the series will be given on "The Heights of Salvation." The quartette from Reed Memorial choir will be present tonight and will render at least three special numbers. This promises to be a real feature of the evening service. They will bring along their own organist. A cordial invitation is extended to every one to be present tonight.

On Sabbath day Mr. Work will speak three times. At 2:30 p. m. he will deliver a sermon lecture on the theme, "The Hand of God in American History."

The attendance at the meeting last evening was not so large on account of the rain, but the interest was fine and the sermon was up to a high standard. And the response on the part of the congregation was good. The applause began at the announcement of the text, continued without an instant of interruption until the close of the prayer that ended the service. Then it changed its form and became audible. The congregation showed its appreciation by maintaining absolute silence and giving the closest attention to the speaker till he had finished. Then, as with one impulse, everyone, the tension broken, shifted his position. A preacher many feel flattered by complimentary remarks after a service, but the tribute of rapt attention while he speaks and enthusiastic song after he is done, cannot be mistaken. It is all the more valuable because it is unconscious.

on terms at a private sale.

Other bills introduced included: Taking away power from the state tax board to examine records of corporations and individuals, by Representative Kenney.

Abolishing the attendance officer in counties of 25,000 population or less, introduced by Representative Bierly.

Providing city courts in second, third and fourth classes shall have civil jurisdiction up to $500, by Representative Scott.

A bill introduced by Senator Batt which would repeal the act that provides that all grade and high schools shall have a department of physical education was killed today by the senate which adopted a committee report recommending its indefinite postponement.

EDITOR OF THE STAR DIES

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 1.—Ernest Bross, managing editor of the Indianapolis Star for eighteen years, died here last night from bronchial pneumonia. He had been in ill health for a year. Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at the First Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Marx Says It Proved A Blessing

Tanlac helped me out of a sick bed and built me up to better health than I have enjoyed in years," declared Mrs. M. Marx, 2212 Benton St., St. Louis, Mo.

"My stomach troubled me so much for two or three years I finally collapsed in a nervous breakdown. Gas would form in my stomach and bring on awful spells of heart palpitation, shortness of breath, headaches and dizzy spells. My back pained me too, and I was so nervous and miserable I could not sleep."

"What four bottles of Tanlac did for me was a most pleasant surprise for today I haven't a single trace of my old troubles. I will always bless the day I got this wonderful medicine."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists. —Advertisement

"MAN AND WIFE"

She Claims Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did It After Everything Else Failed

Milwaukee, Wisconsin.—"I feel that I ought to let you know about my case. I was ailing and could barely do my housework and washing. I was so run-down, just from having one child. I took a lot of medicines and had doctors. Then I gave them all up and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I feel wonderfully good now. I do everything that comes along, and we all take your medicine as a tonic when we don't feel just so. I am thankful for what the Vegetable Compound has done for my health and for my family."—Mrs. MARY SAITCHECK, 944 28th Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Letters like these testify to the value of the Vegetable Compound. These women speak from the fullness of their hearts. They describe as correctly as they can their conditions: First, those symptoms that affected them most conspicuously; and later the disappearance of those symptoms. They are sincere expressions of gratitude. For nearly fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been so praised by women.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound", which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Plain Facts for Fair Minds

The literal truth is, that the Hupmobile is a fine car at a low price. You can establish that truth easily, and to your own satisfaction.

The facts are available to anyone. Any independent garage mechanic will tell you how soundly and wisely the Hupmobile is engineered; how finely it is built.

Any Hupmobile owner will tell you how amazingly little it costs for upkeep, and for operation; and how thoroughly reliable and consistent it is in service throughout the years.

Its comparative absence from the used-car columns will give you some idea of its high value when you re-sell it; and its price will convince you that it is one of the world's greatest motorcar values when you buy it.
